Judge J. S. Clay has been on the sick list the past week.

Lyman H. Reed was a St. Louis visitor the first of the week.

Creamery Butter, 55c at City Cash Store.

Jeff and Shaw Ballard, of St. Louis, spent Sunday with friends here.

Miss Thelma Francis, of Flat River, was a Farmington visitor Sunday.

Nut Margarine, 35c at the City Cash Store.

Miss Pearl Yates spent Sunday with Miss Nan Edwards, of near Spott.

Eddie Effrein looked after business in St. Louis Tuesday and Wednesday.

Calumet and Rumford Baking Powder, 30c at the City Cash Store.

Miss Emma Unfilet spent Sunday with her cousin, Mrs. Clobbe, of Route six.

Miss Mary Hunt spent Saturday with relatives and friends in Flat River.

Lee Ramsey returned the last of the week from several days visit in St. Louis.

Mrs. Henry Antoine and daughter, of Doe Run, were Farmington visitors Saturday.

Ernest Aubachon, of Flat River, was a Farmington visitor the last of the week.

Dr. and Mrs. Crenshaw, of Caledonia, were business visitors in Farmington Tuesday.

Miss Pauline Rinke, of Flat River, spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Rolla Cozcan.

The Parent-Teachers' Association will meet this afternoon in the High School building at 3:15.

Mrs. R. Fugate is visiting Fredericktown relatives this week. She will return home to-morrow.

The large amount of improvement that is in progress in Farmington and vicinity is proof positive.

Mrs. Ross Kirkendall, of Bismarck, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Yates.

L. H. Williams, cashier of the Farmers Bank, made a business trip to St. Louis Monday, returning Tuesday.

Sheriff Jno. H. Hunt and Prosecuting Attorney W. E. Coffey left Monday on a business trip for Dayton, Ohio.

There should be at least a light coat of oiling applied to the streets as early as possible. The dust is becoming oppressive.

Homer Smith, who is working on the farm of his uncle, Eli Bloom, spent Saturday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Z. Smith.

The splendid rain Wednesday night was timely and will assist materially in crop making. It has also settled the dust for a little while.

W. E. Cundiff, of Springfield, Mo., came in Tuesday for a few days' visit with his father, "uncle Jack" Cundiff, and other relatives and friends.

Harry King Denman left yesterday morning for Columbia to spend a few days with his brother, Mack, who is attending the State University.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church, South, will give an Apron and Bake sale to-morrow (Saturday) afternoon, at Radley's Music Store.

Nineteen members of last year's senior class in Chillicothe High School have enrolled in the Chillicothe Business College for business courses—a splendid home endorsement.

The finest as well as the coarsest fabrics are thoroughly cleaned, without injury, on The Eden. Call for a demonstration at A. J. Hawn's, Agent, Farmington, Mo.

Marvin Young, a former well known Farmingtonian, who for the past several years has been located in Miami, Okla., was called here Saturday by the death of his father, Henry Young.

Among the students enrolling in the Telegraph Dept. of the Chillicothe Business College Monday were two young men from Virginia. Their railroad fare amounted to $68.56.

Capt. and Mrs. J. W. Elledge drove over from Irondale Tuesday, where they are stopping for the present, the Captain being engaged in prospecting some of his mineral lands in that vicinity.

Wm. Good left Monday for Indianapolis, Ind., for a week's visit at his old home. Mr. Good left the same morning for a week's visit with relatives and friends in Arcadia, Iron county.

Charles Stubbs, who is attending the military school at Alton, Ill., spent Easter at his home in Blodgett. While returning to school he stopped off in Farmington and spent the week-end with his aunt, Mrs. S. C. Watts.

Mrs. Ethel Ball, of Flat River, and Misses Maude and Clara Nettleton and Pearl Lesser, and Thomas Allen and Clarence Claywell, of Bonne Terre, motored to Farmington Sunday and spent a few hours with T. J. Glavin and family.

If you want to take the work out of washing, and perhaps have it done in your own home, without the many worries of the past, The Eden Electric Washer is the solution. You should see this wonderful machine at A. J. Hawn's, Agent, Farmington, Mo.

The dust is becoming quite pernicious in Farmington. It is high time that oil was being put on the streets, even though it may be impossible to do more than make temporary improvement in smoothing out the street surfaces before the oiling process is performed.

You should not overlook the fact that A. J. Hawn is agent for The Eden Electric Washer, and Safety Winger, and will be pleased to give you a demonstration of how they eliminate work from washing. They have been tested and approved by the Good Housekeeping Magazine, and which there is no higher approval.

Dr. Homer Clay, who is practicing in the Children's Memorial Hospital in Chicago, will arrive the last of the week for a brief visit with his parents, Judge and Mrs. J. S. Clay, coming from a visit with his sister, Mrs. Chas. E. Wilson, in Kansas City.

The dust is becoming very disagreeable, pernicious and offensive. It should be put down and out for the count, at least for the approaching summer season. Why should such an annoyance be tolerated, even for a time, when it is the one conclusion that it will be abated some time this year.

A. J. Blair, president of the DeSoto Nurseries, was here yesterday looking after deliveries of stock. Mr. Blair is also manager of the DeSoto brass band, which has been engaged for service in this city for Sales Day on April 16th. He informed The Times that organization would be here at that time, prepared to furnish good music throughout the day. He also said that perhaps a hundred people from DeSoto would accompany the band.

The meeting of the Monday Club on April 4th was held at the home of Miss Alma Williams. Rev. King lectured on Tennyson's "In Memoriam", and a literary treat was enjoyed. The program opened with a piano solo by Miss Williams, followed by a song by Mrs. K. C. Weber. The teachers of the public school were invited by the Monday Club to hear Mr. King. After listening to his excellent talk, they were invited into the dining room, where delicious refreshments were served.

The Times is informed that there is a splendid chance of Farmington securing an Exide Battery Station in the near future. This is something that the Commercial Club should look after and give encouragement to, as such a station would doubtless represent a wide scope of country, and would necessarily have strong drawing power among users of the Exide Battery. It is such things as these, perhaps small in themselves, that add to the growth and prosperity of any community.

BUSINESS COLLEGE NOTES

Mayme Howell visited home folks Saturday and Sunday last. She says it is hard to get the right kind of trained office help, notwithstanding reports of work being scarce in St. Louis.

Ferd Burgess came in from St. Louis Saturday and returned Monday. He has been offered half a dozen positions recently, but intends to stay where he is for a while.

Tessie Robinson came in from Bonne Terre Saturday afternoon, where she is working for the St. Joe Lead Co. Tessie has been transferred from Leadwood recently.

Misses Sally Semar and Jode Compton, now teaching near Frankley, were in Farmington Saturday making arrangements to take business training. Both girls expect to begin right away.

Miss Maude Reese, who has been teaching near Fredericktown, came in last week and made arrangements for a course in Business College.

Miss Gladys Morgan, sister of Mrs. Irene Jones, made arrangements last week to enter business college soon. She has been living at Dexter, Mo.

John H. Gum, of Henson, Mo., was in Farmington Saturday. He accompanied his daughters home. They have just completed courses in the Ozark Business College here.

Miss Lavada Gibson was in one day last week making arrangements to enter business college.

Norman Watts and folks were in the city Wednesday. Norman will begin a course in the Ozark soon.

Charles Raglan, principal of the high school at Esther, was in Farmington on business Saturday.

Mrs. Thomas, of Weingarten, was in Farmington on business Saturday. Her son, Thomas, has been attending the Ozark.

E. B. Jones and family passed through Farmington from Flat River Saturday enroute for a visit with Mr. Coffey's family.

Mr. Shumake, of Annapolis, was in Farmington this week making arrangements for his son to attend the Ozark.

HOME DEMONSTRATION NOTES

An interesting and very much worth while meal planning meeting was held at the home of Mrs. J. S. Evans, of Leadwood, Thursday, March 31st.

Miss Anna C. Jensen, Food Specialist, from Columbia, gave a talk on meal planning. The women responded 100 per cent by agreeing to try better meal planning and to report at the end of a month or six weeks to the Home Demonstration Agent. The things which will be stressed by the women in this food work are: the use of more green vegetables, use of at least a pint of milk per day for each member of the family, use of cereal at least once a day and the doing away of tea and coffee for children.

The Leadwood ladies have a right to be proud of the way in which they work together and get things done. In clothing work they decided to make dress forms, so their sewing could be done more easily. The goal set for the year was ten forms. After one demonstration by the Home Demonstration Agent, the women got busy. They have helped each other fit the linings and eleven forms have been made and there are several others who want the forms.

A Conference of Agents of Northern Missouri was held March 4th in Kansas City. At that time, the Home Convenience project was discussed and plans made to put on a state-wide Home Improvement Week, May 2nd-9th. At that time, each county in the state is urged to get in touch with all the merchants selling household equipment and to urge extensive advertisement of these wares. Those present at the meeting also decided to put on an intensive educational campaign for improved methods of doing laundry work. The washing machine is to be pushed at this time as the greatest time and labor saver and people are to be urged to buy as soon as finances permit. Emphasis is to be laid on the fact that laundry methods in the country are back numbers and need to be brought up to date.

In St. Francois county, sixteen women from as many communities will be selected by the Home Demonstration Agent and the County Project Leaders, Mrs. Will Counts and Miss Lena Herbst. Each of these sixteen women will be asked to see fifteen women and get information about their laundry methods by means of a questionnaire sent out from the Farm Bureau office. These questionnaires will be filled out, and the material tabulated and used for publicity work.

A Conference of Southeast Missouri Home Demonstration Agents will be held at Sikeston, April 21st. This Conference will include Agents from Jefferson, St. Francois, Dunklin, Butler and Cape Girardeau counties. Those projects will be discussed which present the greatest problems in this section of the state.

Mr. George W. Harvey, Poultry Specialist, was in the county March 28th and 29th, visiting the Certified Breeding Flock co-operators and the Demonstration Flock co-operators.

The three people who have gone into the Certified Breeding Flock project are: Mrs. J. C. Ballard, Knob Lick, R. F. D. No. 1; Mrs. T. B. Chandler, Farmington, R. F. D. No. 3, and J. R. Webb, of Knob Lick. All three of these co-operators are getting along nicely with their work of building up their flocks. Mr. Webb, who has Brown Leghorns, was unfortunate this year in being unable to obtain a brown leghorn cocker whose mother has a 200-egg record.

The demonstration flocks visited were those belonging to State Hospital No. 4, Mrs. Chas. Hopkins, and Mrs. Lee Roy Johnson.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

March 31—Marion M. Crawford, of Mill Creek, and Lillie Polite, of St. Louis.

April 2—Lawrence Gideon Owens and Cora Maud Dunham, both of Elvins.

April 2—W. R. Jolly, of Flat River, and Mrs. Blanche Bess, of Glen Allen, Mo.

April 2—Fred Inman and Hilda Brown, both of Bismarck.

April 7—Ray Pinson Smith and Katherine Rice, both of St. Louis.

FEEDING THE BABY CHICK

At hatching, one-fourth the chick's weight is unabsorbed egg yolk which is reserve food material. This is gradually absorbed and for this reason the chicks require no food until they are fifty hours old. In fact, earlier feeding is not advisable, says H. L. Kempster in Circular 91 of the Missouri Agricultural Experiment Station.

Beginning at the first feed the chicks should be given a light feed of chick food—a mixture of cracked grain—about three times a day. At first this should be fed on a bare spot or in trays, until the chicks become accustomed to the feed. After ten days the chick food should be scattered in the litter so as to encourage exercise. Twice a day they should be given boiled eggs (boiled for one-half hour) grated fine and mixed with bread crumbs, corn-bread, rolled oats, or a mixture of equal parts by weight of bran, shorts and cornmeal. The food should be readily cleaned up, the aim being to feed sparingly for the first week. One should keep the chicks slightly hungry and with keen appetites so as to encourage exercise during the day and then fill them up at the night feeding. Water with the chill removed and sour milk should be given.

"I WISH I WERE RICH"

When I worked in an office from early till late,
And my pocket was empty of cash,
I looked at the glittering autos go by
With brasses and crystal a flash;
The varnish and leather and luxury used
My envious eyes to bewitch,
I yearned for a car, and I sighed to myself:
"I wish I were rich!"

I gazed in a jeweler's window at rings
And watches in gorgeous array,
I lingered to stare at a beautiful coat
In a furrier's over the way,
I peeped in a hall with a velvet rug
And statues and palms in a niche,
I passed by a mansion of marble; and I cried:
"I wish I were rich!"

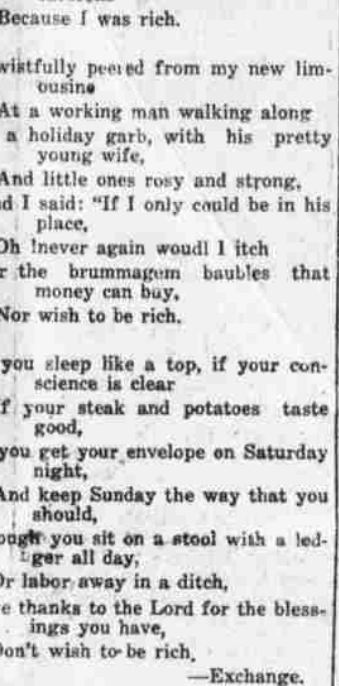

One morning Dame Fortune appeared
At my door,
Behold! I was rolling in wealth.
But the care of my millions took all of time,
And soon I was broken in health.
My mail was a bundle of plaintive appeals,
And copies of newspapers which
Assailed me in merciless skits and cartoons
"Because I was rich."

I wistfully peered from my new limousine
At a working man walking along
In a holiday garb, with his pretty young wife,
And little ones rosy and strong,
And I said: "If I only could be in his place,
Oh never again would I itch
For the brummagem baubles that money can buy,
Nor wish to be rich."

If you sleep like a top, if your conscience is clear
If your steak and potatoes taste good,
If you get your envelope on Saturday night,
And keep Sunday the way that you should,
Though you sit on a stool with a ledger all day,
Or labor away in a ditch,
Give thanks to the Lord for the blessings you have,
Don't wish to be rich.

—Exchange.

NOTICE

The community at large who contributed to the fund to fence the old Pendleton cemetery. The committee of ten collected $220. We had it surveyed, wishing to take in more land and make it larger. The committee bought 140 rods of woven wire fencing, two bales of barbed wire, a keg of staples and 200 cedar posts, the cost of which was about $208.50. This leaves about $11.50. We need two gates. These gates should be good ones. We have decided to meet on Friday and Saturday, April 15th and 16th, to do the work, hoping everyone interested will feel it their duty as well as ours. The men to come and do the work on the fence and the ladies bring the dinner.
